COSMIC TEMPLE BLUEPRINT

Dear Kate,

Thank you for your order of the Cosmic Temple Healing and Report. Within the Cosmic Temple sanctuary of perfect peace and balance your life force resonated with the highest possible vibration. Well done!

How to use this report:

To maintain the high vibrational integrity of the Healing, I recommend that you read this report everyday for 1 week. I call this your Integration Period. Make notes of passages in the report you don't quite understand or notes of ones that moved you so that you will remember to return to them and allow them to guide you to clarity. As you read, you will likely notice changes within and around you of relief, contentment, and expanded perception.

During this integration period there will be an abundance of loving Cosmic support to help you fully integrate the Healing experience. I recommend that during this time you keep the information in this report to yourself. This period of reflection will build power and allows the creative forces that created this report to concentrate their efforts for your highest good.

Silence builds power so give yourself these 7 days to sense and feel your vibrant energy and empowered communication with the Divine. Let your focus be on an attitude of gratitude and appreciation. This will help you to get out of the way and fully receive what you have asked for in this healing.

I suggest that you apply the recommendations and begin using the daily affirmation as soon as possible. These will bring additional clarity, grace and ease to your experience. Please know you are loved and joy and celebration were the predominant vibration in the Cosmic Temple for your Healing.

Part 1. The Field Clearing

Once your Spirit was present we began your Healing in the Great Room of the Temple. The Great Room is a large square space of smooth white marble walls in the very center of the Temple. There is a raised Universal Healing platform in the center of the room where the clearing process happens. In the high domed ceiling above the platform there is a stained glass Rose window of brilliant radiant colors. This window is the light portal for all the of the cleared energy to leave and transform back into pure energy. With love compassion and respect we cleared your field of all that was blocking your connection to the Light.

Part 2 The Light Shielding of Balancing Colors

The Shielding process is created in a different area of the Cosmic Temple, inside the Light and Levitation Shield room. This is a circular room made of rainbow light that constantly changes, shifting through a multidimensional full spectrum of colors. You were guided into the center of the room along a spiral path on the floor. Once at the center the Column of Divine Light and Levitation appeared. Within this Column you gently ascended which allowed the shape of the colored light shield to surround you completely. Your new Light Shield is in the shape of a luminous egg that extends 2-3 feet out from your body. It is made up of a balanced blend of these Universal Healing Rays:

Part 3 The Three Magi and Their Gifts

For the 3rd part of your healing we entered another area within the Cosmic Temple called the Pyramid Throne Room. This is the room where the three Magi appear and offer you the gifts that will support you. The walls of this pyramid are made from very old stones carved with swirling symbols of magic, alchemy, and sacred geometry. The capstone is crystallized star light. The large square Throne in the center directly under the capstone, is made of the same ancient stone and is also carved with ancient symbols. The Magi and the different gifts they bring awaken the ancient wisdom within your Soul.

Please know that you fully received the energetic transmission of these gifts during the Healing, and that these integrated energies will keep awakening your wisdom! I recommend that you purchase and use the essential oil as well as the gemstone.

Part 4 Your Spirit Guides, Their Messages, and the Attunement.

For this part of the Healing, we moved to a beautiful outdoor area of the Temple called the Garden of the Guides. This area is open to the stars and to the expansive radiance of all Spiritual Guidance. Here you sat on a beautiful bench as your 3 Spiritual Guides entered through the garden gate, one at a time, to be with you.
